

HEALTH, SAFETY & SECURITY POLICY STATEMENT

health, safety and security of all Tate employees, visitors and contractors. Whilst the overall principles contained in the Policy statement apply to Tate's subsidiary and associated , in addition, detail of any arrangements that are required for the specific undertaking

The Safety, Health, Security and Fire Prevention Policy is an effective, and appropriate for Tate.

Tate is committed to the principle that everything must be done as safely and securely as possible and supports the provision to:

- 3 Provide a safe and healthy work environment, ensuring the activities
- 3 Promote positive accident and ill health prevention
- 3
- 3 risk to an acceptable level
- 3 Comply with all current health, safety, security and fire prevention legislation
- 3 contractors and volunteers
- 3 Provide appropriate mechanisms to communicate safety and security measures, and for colleagues to partake in a positive safety and security culture

ing that adequate resources are made available to comply to health, safety, opportunity for continuous improvements to reduce the risk of personal injury, ill health, and or damage to property and the environment.

Signed

The Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Tate Gallery